CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

The confidentiality of statements about ministers or ministerial applicants must be held in sacred trust by district superintendents and members of district boards. Violations of this trust could result in disciplinary action or civil liabilities. However, it is equally important that district superintendents communicate relevant information about ministers to other district officials and local church officials who have a need to know. Examples of such communication are ministers transferring to other districts and information concerning a minister who is a candidate to pastor a church. Failure to disclose information may result in legal responsibility. If a ministerial applicant is not approved for license, the district board may, upon his request, disclose to him the nature of the information it has obtained about him, but not the sources.

LIMITED DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

I, _____, in consideration of my receiving ministerial credentials from the United Pentecostal Church International do hereby authorize the district superintendent or his designee in his sole discretion to release to any general official, district official, or local church official who has a need to know any information concerning my conduct and cooperation in the organization. Information may be released on the initiative of the district superintendent or in response to an inquiry. I also hereby release the above officials from any and all liability for damages of whatever kind or nature which may at any time result to me on account of their disclosure of information authorized by this agreement.

I expressly agree that this release is intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by law and that if any portion is held to be invalid, I agree that the balance shall, notwithstanding, continue in full legal force and effect. This release contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto, and the terms of this release are contractual and not a mere recital.

I further agree that this limited disclosure agreement shall remain in legal force and effect as long as I remain a member of the United Pentecostal Church International.

I further state that I have carefully read the foregoing release and know the contents thereof and I sign this release as my own free act. This is a legally binding agreement which I have read and understand.

STATEMENT

The information contained in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand and agree that the district board may conduct a background check relative to the questions in this application to determine my character and fitness for the ministry. I agree not to seek damages from any person, church, or organization on account of compliance with this agreement and authorization.

I understand that any information provided to the district board will remain confidential, and I therefore waive any right that I may have to examine this confidential information. Moreover, if the district board deems it necessary, I authorize a credit check and/or criminal record check.

In consideration of the receipt and evaluation of this application, I agree to this background check as stated above by my signature on this application.

Use this space for further explanation of any questions on preceding pages.

NOTE: New and reinstatement applicants are required to submit the following with their application: two photos (one for the district files and one for the general files) of the applicant and spouse (if applicable), one-fourth of the annual membership dues, a $25.00 application fee, and an insurance beneficiary form. The membership fee entitles a minister to a license, a fellowship card, a downloadable Manual and Ministerial and Church Directory, subscriptions to the Pentecostal Life and Forward, and a $10,000 life insurance policy with double indemnity and dismemberment provisions. (Applicants for an upgrade in credential status do not need to submit one-quarter dues. However, the application fee, two photos, and an insurance beneficiary form are required.)

When this application is completed and all signatures obtained, make your money order or check payable to the UNITED PENTECOSTAL CHURCH INTERNATIONAL, and mail with the application, photos, and insurance beneficiary form to your district superintendent (or to the official designated in your particular district) for possible consideration by the district board.

Also note that an applicant's record of past cooperation with district policies including its financial plan is subject to review at the time he or she meets the district board.
