CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

The confidentiality of statements about ministers or ministerial applicants must be held in sacred trust by district superintendents and members of district boards. Violations of this trust could result in disciplinary action or civil liabilities. However, it is equally important that district superintendents communicate relevant information about ministers to other district officials and local church officials who have a need to know. Examples of such communication are ministers transferring to other districts and information concerning a minister who is a candidate to pastor a church. Failure to disclose information may result in legal responsibility. If a ministerial applicant is not approved for license, the district board may, upon his request, disclose to him the nature of the information it has obtained about him, but not the sources.

Information may be released on the initiative of the district superintendent or in response to an inquiry. I also hereby release the above officials from any and all liability for damages of whatever kind or nature which may at any time result to me on account of their disclosure of information authorized by this agreement.

I expressly agree that this release is intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by law and that if any portion is held to be invalid, I agree that the balance shall, notwithstanding, continue in full legal force and effect. This release contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto, and the terms of this release are contractual and not a mere recital.
